Both churches are limited in number of spaces due to (1m+) social distancing. The church at Holy Ghost has thirteen pews plus two rows of chairs, so has a minimum number of 28 people. St Michael's has 20 spaces available. You are advised to book a place in advance: you can do this by email to yeovil.holyghost@cliftondiocese.com or by phone/text to the Parish Office on 07856-989013 during office hours of Monday, Wednesday or Friday 10am to 12 midday.

REOPENING OUR CHURCHES: Father Jean-Patrice writes: We have now reopened our churches from Tuesday 14 July with a small number of parishioners attending. Hopefully, more will do so as word spreads around of the new provisional times and arrangements, and that every effort is being made to make the environment as safe as possible. We are still in need of volunteers to help with stewarding and cleaning. There are documents which are available on request, but it may suffice to say that the touching of surfaces should be minimised as much as possible, and should be cleaned immediately after use. Also that the movement of parishioners should be regulated so that they are kept at a safe distance from each other (excepting of course those who live in the same household). Also, at least one steward should have basic safeguarding training: they do not need to have a DBS, but they should do a simple online EduCare course (see separate article by Margaret Gulliver).

We are now back to a normal Sunday timetable: please check the bulletin as times of weekday Masses may vary.

Saturday	5pm (First Mass of Sunday)	Holy Ghost
Sunday	9am	St Michael's
	10.30am and 6.30pm	Holy Ghost
Monday	No Mass
Tuesday	7pm	Holy Ghost
Wednesday	10am	Holy Ghost
Thursday	10am	St Michael's
Friday	10am and 7pm (Latin Mass)	Holy Ghost

The Bishops have said that the Obligation to go to Mass on Sunday remains suspended. This has to be the case, as most churches cannot contain all the parishioners who normally go on Sunday. An example is Westminster Cathedral, which with the measures put in for social distancing, can only hold sixty people. Therefore the bishops are encouraging us to go to Mass at alternative times during the week. They also recognise, that for various reasons, some parishioners cannot go to Mass at this time. So they are encouraging parishes to continue with livestreaming and recording of Masses. The Sunday morning Mass will be recorded, and will be made available on the website later in the day. As mentioned before, we have received two generous donations from parishioners to buy a camera that will allow us to livestream Masses and other services. The monthly charge is given as £150 every month. It would make sense to have an idea of our current finances (obviously depleted) before making any engagement.

Therefore, although you can still turn up to go to Mass, it is recommended that you book a place in order to ensure you have a seat. At Holy Ghost, the pews have been rearranged so that thirteen pews are available, plus two clusters of three chairs. Since face coverings are now obligatory, we can now go to 1m+ distancing, or in other words two people from different households at the end of the same pew. So a minimum of twenty eight people can be accommodated at Mass. However, if people live in the same household (or bubble), they could share a pew with up to six people. So the maximum number of people is eighty-four (the capacity of St Michael's is 20 individuals, or 20 households/bubbles). You can read the full guidance at: <https://www.cbcew.org.uk/wp-content/uploads/sites/3/2020/06/Guidance-Acts-of-Worship-Mass-V10-03082020.pdf>.

Face coverings are to be kept on for the entirety of the service: the only exception being for the reception of Holy Communion where they should be unlooped, so that the Sacred Host may be consumed in front of the minister. The minister will wear a face covering for the distribution of Holy Communion, but otherwise will not do so as long as he remains in the Sanctuary. As with shops and public transport, there are legitimate exemptions for not wearing face coverings, so we should avoid jumping to conclusions about those who are not wearing coverings. Although wearing a covering is onerous for many, we should see the wearing of one as an act of charity towards many of our parishioners who are still very nervous about coming back to Mass.

As face coverings are not easy to wear for a sustained length of time, weekday Masses will not have a homily. Parishioners who find the length of Mass difficult should go to weekday Masses as there is no obligation to attend Mass on Sunday (although the obligation to sanctify Sunday with prayer still remains).

The Bishops also say:

Worshippers should limit their interactions with anyone they are not attending church with, i.e. if they are attending corporate worship with one other household, wherever possible they should maintain social distancing with anyone outside of this group.

However, it is required to use hand sanitiser on entering and leaving the building. It is also essential to not come to church if you are showing any symptoms, such as coughing.

How to book

This will be done through our Parish Administrator Sue Chant, who is now able to work again after having been on furlough. Please indicate which Mass you want to go to, and if you are part of a household/bubble so that you can share a pew. You can do this by sending her an email at the parish address: yeovil.holyghost@cliftondiocese.com, or by calling her on the parish mobile phone on 07856-989013, where you may also leave a text. Sue will be working from home, and will not be available on the parish landline. Telephone booking will only be available during her working hours of Monday, Wednesday and Friday between 10am and 12pm midday.

Please note:

At this point in time, it is not compulsory to book, but if you turn up to Mass and you have not booked and the church is full, you will be asked by the steward to wait outside. You are not permitted to enter the church if it is full, due to the social distancing guidelines. These guidelines are for the safety of everyone and must be complied with.

PLEASE PRAY FOR: our parishioner Terry Harvey who died in Yeovil Hospital last Sunday after having received the Last Sacraments. Please remember his wife Madeleine and his family in your prayers. Father David O'Regan has now left hospital, and is being looked after at his house by a full time carer. He cannot receive visitors, as he is still very frail. Well wishers are advised to speak to his sister Joan Batstone.

PARISH FINANCES: Please remember the financial needs of your parish. If you have been able to receive your normal salary during the lockdown, the precept to support your parish and pastors still stands, as the financial burdens of the parish still remain. The best way to support the parish is via a Standing Order. If you do not have one, and have not already passed on your contributions, please bring them as soon as you can when you attend Mass again. Thank you very much.

THE YEAR OF COMMUNION:

Sunday 6th September - 23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

When we are hurt or angry, we can use silence both as a shield and a weapon. Afraid to say the wrong thing, afraid of causing more hurt, we can sit and fester. But silence is the enemy of peace. Jesus reminds us of the need to seek reconciliation. It is often difficult to take that first step, to be the one to start the conversation especially if we are the wronged one; but in a spirit of generosity and willingness to listen to the other, the process of healing can begin. If, on the other hand we continue to meet with hostility, we are encouraged to seek the help of others to try and bring about peace. Without this peace and reconciliation, the situation will remain bound. In other words we have to do everything we can to resolve the problem. Perhaps in our own life we have a situation which is causing pain either for ourselves or another. Do we need to take that step? Let us ask God for the courage and the willingness to reach out and begin the process.

A FUTURE

Dear friends and fellow parishioners,

Following on from my message in last week's bulletin, there is some further information which I need to share with you. This relates to the joyful news that our churches may start very slowly to open once more for Mass (in small numbers)

As always, there are many things to put in place, and to take into consideration, before this may safely happen; some relating to Safeguarding.

Clifton Diocese Safeguarding Team have circulated advice which we need to adhere to. They outline their reasons for this as follows:

What is Safeguarding?

Every human being has a value and dignity which the Catholic faith acknowledges as coming directly from God's creation of male and female in his own image and likeness. This implies a duty to value all people and therefore to support them and protect them from harm. This is done by implementing legislation through policies and procedures.

In the Catholic Church this is demonstrated by the provision of carefully planned activities for children, young people and adults; supporting families under stress, caring for those hurt by abuse in the past, ministering to those who have caused harm.

It is because of these varied ministries that we need to provide a safe environment for all which promotes and supports their wellbeing. This will include carefully selecting and appointing those who work with children, young people or adults at risk of harm and responding robustly where concerns arise.

Therefore, all clergy, employees and volunteers working with vulnerable groups, including children, must adhere to the Catholic Church's national safeguarding policies, all of which can be found on www.csas.uk.net

Why does this affect opening our churches for public worship?

Sadly, for some people, the pressure they have found themselves and their families under has been very hard to bear. During lockdown, organisations and charities have reported an increase in domestic abuse, child abuse, elderly abuse, neglect, mental health, and substance misuse. For some people, walking back into a church building after a long period of time might be the first opportunity they have to share their experience and speak about how they are feeling. Some may disclose incidents that need a Safeguarding response. This is intended to help you if you are faced with such a situation.

Therefore, while we are being asked to volunteer as stewards for guiding and helping people who wish to attend Mass, as well as thoroughly cleaning the church before and after Mass, Clifton is stating the following for volunteers:

There is no requirement to have DBS clearance.

They must be a current volunteer within the church and known to the Parish Priest

Where possible at least one of every pair of Stewards should have some Safeguarding training. It is beneficial if both have. A module on EduCare will suffice. (Teachers and some health workers are likely to have received Safeguarding training within their professional role).

Finally, if you have any Safeguarding concerns or questions, feel free to email me at our parish safeguarding email address:

PSR.yeovil.holyghost@parish.cliftondiocese.com

Keep safe and well. God bless.

Margaret Gulliver

PRAYER FOR GOD'S PROTECTION AGAINST COVID-19 VIRUS:

Bishop John Keenan of the Diocese of Paisley, Scotland suggests that we can spiritually protect ourselves and our world against the Coronavirus. He recommends that we pray the Protection Prayer followed by the Rosary each day until the crisis ceases.

Prayer for God's Protection against Covid-19 virus

Lord, you promised: "If my people humble themselves, pray, seek me and turn from their wicked ways, I will hear and forgive their sins and restore them" ... (2 Chronicles 7:14)

Most Holy Trinity, in Jesus, the Only Begotten Son, You revealed Yourself as the fount of life and unfathomable source of Divine Mercy, who listens to Your People. We the people of England, Wales, Scotland, Ireland, and our Isles, ask you to heed us amid this global pandemic of the Coronavirus that we struggle to bear.

Father God we entrust ourselves into your Divine Mercy, through Our Lady, Mother of Mercy and Her Sorrowful and Immaculate Heart, through St. Michael and the Archangels, St. Joseph, and all our nations' Saints and Martyrs.

Merciful Jesus, hold out Your Healing Hand to rescue and safeguard us from this disease, and turn our nations and our souls to You as our Saviour.

We ask this for our sick, elderly and vulnerable, for families with young children, for our destitute and those suffering poor mental health.

Our Nations have forgotten You and sinned against You. We confess our sins with the Prophet Daniel: "Lord, we have sinned against you, we have acted wickedly, betrayed your commandments and turned from them. Integrity is yours; ours the look of shame because of the sins we carry. Listen to us, open Your eyes and see our plight. We do not rely on our own works but on Your mercy as we commend our humble plea to you. Lord, listen, forgive and act! For your own sake do not delay, because we, Your people, bear your name.

God Our Father, all forgiving and gentle, we implore your mercy, intervention and healing. Through JESUS CHRIST our Lord in the power of the Most Precious Blood. Amen.

CAFOD JOINS DEC CORONAVIRUS APPEAL TO SAVE LIVES AS COVID-19 SPREADS IN REFUGEE CAMPS AND CONFLICT AREAS:

CAFOD has joined forces with the Disasters Emergency Committee (DEC) to help millions of vulnerable people whose lives are at risk as the coronavirus pandemic spreads across refugee camps and countries suffering conflict.

Families who have been forced to flee their homes in places including Syria, South Sudan, and the Democratic Republic of Congo, now face another deadly threat as coronavirus takes hold in new areas.

CAFOD Director, Christine Allen, said:

"In the UK our struggle against coronavirus has entered the next phase, but in many of the world's poorest communities, the fight has only just begun. Families who have fled conflict, and are living in crowded camps or makeshift shelters, are especially vulnerable.

"We need your support to reach these communities and help people to cope as best they can when an outbreak of the virus strikes.

"In many places around the world, there are not enough hospital beds or supplies to treat everyone who falls ill. But promoting handwashing and providing personal protective equipment, health advice and food parcels can make a huge difference."

The first coronavirus case has been confirmed in north-west Syria, causing alarm for a region where camps are over-crowded, and hospitals in ruins, after nearly ten years of war.

"It is critical that we act now to reach millions of vulnerable people who have lost everything and no longer have ways of coping," said Allen. "Working with the Disasters Emergency Committee will allow us to scale up our response and reach more people in need."

Donations to the DEC's Coronavirus Appeal will support vulnerable families by:

- Providing handwashing facilities, clean water, soap, and hand sanitiser
- Promoting public information messages on ways people can stay safe and protect others
- Supporting health systems and aid workers by providing training, personal protective equipment, and medical supplies for frontline responders.

CAFOD is already responding to the coronavirus crisis in some of the poorest countries in the world. Since launching its emergency appeal on 30 April, it has scaled up its support to local aid workers who are providing food and improving hand-washing and sanitation facilities in countries across Africa, Asia, Latin America, and the Middle East.

It is also supporting the training of faith leaders in hygiene promotion and working with churches to use their networks to share clear and accurate information on how communities can protect themselves from coronavirus. This includes messages on Catholic radio stations and producing posters in local dialects.
